A Message From Staff

Otter and Fox class enjoyed an amazing trip to Duxford air museum on Wednesday, as part of their learning about WW2 in History. There was great excitement as they headed off on the coach. When the children arrived, they spent time speaking to veterans and explored what life would have been like in wartime. They also explored the hangars and marvelled at the sheer size of the planes surrounding them. One child described it as “the best day ever!” Back at school Rabbit class have been crafty this week, creating winter lanterns and stars. It was lovely to have parents join us for the workshop and see the wonderful smiles as you worked together. As I write Otter class are preparing for their workshop too. It has been lovely to share these events with our community and, as they have been so popular, we are planning to run more parent workshops in Spring term. Next week it is Badger class’ turn.

It was great to dodge the rain and see people using our clothing swap shop outside after school. We have lots of donations of clothes that children have grown out of and are glad that they can be put to good use. Our next clothing swap shop will be in Spring term but if you are needing something specific, please do ask at the office and we can see what we have.

We have a busy few weeks coming up with preparations for our Christmas concert. Please remember to book your space with the office as we have a limited number of seats at each performance.
